

Local pet care, boarding eases vacation worries

Our condo association rules forbid renters bringing pets into units, so we've assembled a select list of local kennels that board and groom pets in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach, as well as veterinarians who provide medical care should the need arise. Only condo owners are allowed to have pets in buildings. However, even owners cannot take pets to condo pools. While most local beaches do not allow pets, some destinations, such as the Bon Secour wildlife preserve do allow them in designated day-use areas if on a leash. Still, pets are not permitted at Big Lagoon beaches, playgrounds, cabins, or concessions. So, if you bring your pet, be prepared to board them, and to encounter access restrictions. Here are facilities that will care for your pet while you enjoy the beach life.
